OIL FOR THE MACHINES OF RUSSIA—A view of the "Elna", one of four Russian tankers taking aboard more than 125,000 gallons of low and high octane gasoline and 226,000 barrels of oil at San Pedro, Cal., for Russia. Arrow points to hose through which the fuel is being pumped aboard. The "Elna" is taking its shipment of 49,131 barrels of fuel off to Vladivostok.

CARVES CANOES—Near Patricia Bay, V.I., B.C., Chief Edward Jim Carves canoes out of cedar logs. He estimates that he has carved at least 100 of these canoes during his lifetime.

18-YEAR-OLD DROWNS AT SCHOOL PICNIC—When he jumped from diving board into seven feet of water at Lynbrook park swimming pool, shown here, Howard Davis, 16, on the picnic of Pickering school area pupils, drowned. His sister, Mary, 14, inset, also at the picnic, did not see the fatality.

HOT WEATHER DOESN'T BOTHER THESE QUADRUPLTS—Canadians who are having a hard time battling summer heat might take a tip from these quadruplets. The heat problem is pleasantly solved by New York's three-year-old Benet quadruplets, now frolicking in beach sand and sunshine. From left, are leaders, Elaine, Ellen and Benet, the only boy.

DOCTOR'S REWARD: A HUG AND A KISS—Doctor's reward for saving life of Gloria Colter, five, of Chicago, is a great big hug. Nine weeks ago Gloria was stricken with military tuberculosis, usually fatal. Dr. Ward Perrin treated her with 502 "shots" of streptomycin and she recovered.

SUPPLIES HORSES TO BE EXPORTED—It is expected that at least 5,000 old and surplus horses will be exported this summer from Canada to Belgium for horse meat, by Gilbert Arnold of Grenville, Que. These pictures show horses in the corral and horses on the upper deck of S. Alvin Victory which recently sailed from Montreal with 500 human-made horses on board. Thirty-three men, all from Grenville, will do the chores on the trip. During the past year or so many thousands of pounds of processed horsemeat have been exported to Europe. Now Canadian horsemeat is being delivered on the hoof.

ONE-MAN FACTORY—George Young of Kitchener, Ont., made his automobile himself when he found he was losing use of his legs due to multiple sclerosis. It weighs 180 pounds, and cost $100 to build from second-hand material.

LANDS BIG "CAT"—Russell Harris, of Port Credit, landed this 25-pound catfish at Waukegan after a three-hour fight and with the help of Charles Langstaffer.

LOOKING AT THEIR PROMISED LAND—Last of promise for 1,000 Hollanders, who arrived in Montreal aboard chartered ship, Canada looked wonderful to these three Dutch brothers. They will live in western Ontario where they will work on a farm with their parents.

PET IS LESSON IN ARITHMETIC—This little animal, a Syrian hamster, produces a brood of 12 to 20 young every three weeks, makes an affectionate pet, and holds a supply of food in its mouth so that it becomes as broad as it is long. Likes temperature of 70 degrees or more and lives on green leafy vegetables. Its ability to reproduce so rapidly may be a drawback as laboratories are on the lookout for such rapid-reproducers for experimental purposes.

MACARTHUR'S HONOR GUARD AT WORK IN JAPAN—As U.S. General Douglas MacArthur leaves his headquarters in the Dai Ichi building in Tokyo, (left), he returns the salute of members of his honor guard. At (right), Pfc. Nicholas Striling searches Japanese workers for contraband as they leave the pane building by the rear door. He is also a member of the honor guard which is comprised of carefully selected enlisted men. They are responsible for the safety of the general and his staff.
